MARYJANE BROWN LUCKHARDT

MaryJane Brown Luckhardt, Activities Director

MaryJane Brown Luckhardt has dedicated herself to making sure every senior at the Manchester Senior Citizens Council has something meaningful and enjoyable to do. As a longtime board member and Activities Director, she organizes games, cards, crafts, and conversations — and has a natural gift for turning a simple chat into a lively gathering around the table.

A proud Manchester resident, MaryJane is happily married and the mother of a daughter who is herself a senior. She is an accomplished quilter with over 700 quilts to her name, loves making pillowcases, and enjoys baking for the seniors she serves. MaryJane is at her best when she's busy — and the community is better for it.
